

Filming on Private Property

- Production must obtain permission from the property owner to film on any private property
- Filming on private property may require a film permit. Please see “Do I need a permit?” for more information
- The AFO recommends that letters of notification be distributed even if a film permit is not required. Please see the “Letters of Notification” section for detailed information about notifying